

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, June 6, 1933

Died: Wednesday, January 30, 2019

Rita Pisaneschi, 85, of West Wyoming passed away peacefully January 30, 2019 surrounded by her two sons and daughter-in-law in the Meadows Manor Nursing Home, Dallas, where she resided the last few months. Prior to that, she resided at the Village at Greenbriar for several years.

Born in Cassarese, Italy, she was the daughter of the late Armando and Leonilda Gavazzi Pisaneschi. She resided there for the first sixteen years of her life, experiencing World War II, before coming to America. She would go back to visit two times with her husband.

She was a lifetime member of the ILGWU and was a seamstress for the Small Town Dress Factory in West Wyoming. She was a loving mother, mother-in-law, grandma, and most recently a great grandma, who dedicated her life to her family. She was a great cook who always had Sunday dinner on the table at 12 noon sharp.
